Dear Sir:-

It seems to me that we are losing a great propaganda opportunity.

There should be placards on the wall of every country in the world showing a picture of the East Germany barbed wire and soldiers with the sentence (in their native language) "If communism is a paradise, why the barbed wire and soldiers to prevent people from leaving?"

Of course, we could not do this officially, but there must be anti-communist people in every country that would be glad to do the work.

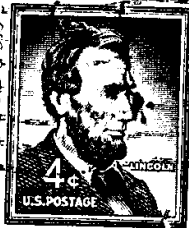

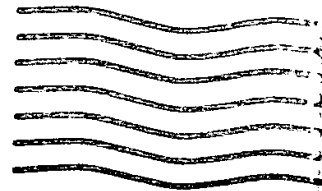

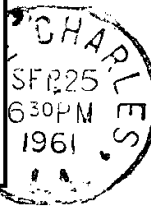

Yours truly,

J. V. Gallagher
